HODGE IN WINNING FORM

SPENCE'S CRACK THREE-YEAR-OLD FINALLY SCORES AT JUAREZ.

Beats Orb and Other Good Sprinters in Decisive Fashion in Overnight Handicap-Horses Quoted at Liberal Odds Take Half the Card.

El Paso, Tex., March 5.—Kay Spence's crack three-year-old, Hodge, after having figured in a series of disappointing performances here of late, came into his own today by scoring a clean cut victory over his erstwhile vanquisher. Orb, and other good opposition in the three-quarter mile handicap that served as the feature race of the day at Juarez. Hodge had comparatively light weight up today and was reserved behind the fast early pace set by Kootenay and Orb. Joining issue with the latter in the stretch after Kootenay had retired Hodge drew away at the end, where he had a winning margin of a length and a half.

the latter in the stretch after Kootenay had retired Hodge drew away at the end, where he had a winning margin of a length and a half.

It now seems evident that lack of condition was mainly responsible for his recent failures. The time of the race was fast—1:11%.

The first two races were contested by selling platers of the cheaper sort. Rake, by no means friendless in the betting, was piloted to an easy victory in the opening dash by A. Mott, with Ursula Emma and Tom Murphy following him most closely. Kali-Inla, the favorite, finished next to last. Anna Reed, which had ruled joint favorite with Lady Rille, came from far back to win the second race.

The third race, a five and a half furlong dash for three-year-olds, with selling conditions, was productive of the best finish of the day, when Birka, Panhachapi and Lemon Joe, which were placed in the order named, with Anar, the favorite, passed the judges' stand so closely aligned that they could easily have been covered by the proverbial blanket,

The third winner of the day at liberal odds attended the running of the fifth race, when Quid Nunc beat Minco Jimmie and Sidney Peters in a driving finish. The final race was won by Ocean Queen, the favorite, in a driving finish with Little Marchmont and Nannie McDee.

Jockey McCabe incurred the displeasure of starter Cassidy while at the barrier on Miss Sly in the fifth race and was suspended for ten days. He persistently kept trying to break through the barrier.

Jockey Ford was suspended for five days on report of patrol judge W. H. Pearce for interfering with Orb on the lower turn in the fourth race.

IMPORTANT STAKE RACES TO CLOSE.

Since in Kentucky alone is there now racing in the great middle west, it follows that the stake offerings of the Kentucky racing organizations are extremely important in the minds of owners. This year they are on such a liberal scale that not only will they secure entries of all the good western-owned horses, but a good list of nominations from castern owners as well. The stakes remaining to close are those offered in behalf of Douglas Park and Latonia. The Douglas Park list is headed by the rich Kentucky, Handicap, for three-year-olds and over, at a mile and a quarter, which has the quite unusual endowment for these days of $10,000 added. This first-class event is supplemented by the Memorial Handicap, for three-year-olds and over, at three-quarters of a mile, with $2,000 added; Spring Trial Stakes, for two-year-olds, at five-eighths of a mile, with $2,000 added; Spring Trial Stakes, for three-year-olds and over at a mile and a sixteenth, under selling conditions.

The Latonia list is more extensive in that it presents nine stake races. The Latonia Derty, with $6,000 added, is the most important of these. The other eight are the Inaugural Handicap, at a mile and a sixteenth, for three-year-olds and over, at three-quarters of a mile, with $2,000 added; Quickstep Stakes, for three-year-olds and over, at three-quarters of a mile, with $2,000 added; Cincinnati Trophy, at three-quarters of a mile, with $2,000 added; Cincinnati Trophy, at three-quarters of a mile, with $2,500 added; Cincinnati Trophy, at three-quarters of a mile, with $2,500 added; Cincinnati Trophy, at three-quarters of a mile, with $2,500 added; Cincinnati Trophy, at three-quarters of a mile, with $2,500 added; Cincinnati Trophy, at three-quarters of a mile, with $2,500 added; Cincinnati Trophy, at three-quarters of a mile, with $2,500 added; Cincinnati Trophy, at three-quarters of a mile, with $2,500 added; Cincinnati Trophy, at three-quarters of a mile, with $2,500 added; Cincinnati Trophy, at three-quarters of a mile, with $2,500 added; Cincinn and over at a mile and three-sixteenths, with $2,500 addeed; Cincinnati Trophy, at three-quarters of a mile, with $3,000 addeed; Harold Stakes, at five-eighths of a mile, with $2,000 addeed; Clipsetta Stakes, at five-eighths of a mile, for fillies, with $2,000 addeed, and the Valuation Stakes, at five and a half furlongs, with $1,500 addeed, the four event-last named being for two-year-olds.

These important events all close for entries at midnight of next Saturday, March 7, and their conditions are all set out elsewhere in this edition of Daily Racing Form. They should be awarded the entry of every horse in the west capable of racing well in good company.

PROBABLY WILL PROVIDE FOR COMMISSION.

Annapolis Md., March 5.—The Hall anti-race track gambling bill continues to remain in the House Committee on Judiciary. Chairman Hoffman of the committee said today that he had held back the proposed favorable report at the request of Speaker Trippe.

The idea now is that there will be an agreement on a bill to create a state-wide racing commission in place of the Hall bill.

HORSES ARRIVING AT LEXINGTON.

Lexington, Ky., March 5.—Horses which have been racing at Charleston are beginning to reach here to get ready for the spring races in Kentucky. The string of W. G. Yanke, consisting of fifteen head and including Old Ben, a Kentucky Derby candidate, arrived safely. George J. Bissell's twelve head and fourteen head in charge of William Perkins, have also arrived.

DREARY DAY AT CHARLESTON.

Jockey McTaggart Shows Good Form in Piloting Three Winners, but Should Have Done Better.

Charleston, S. C., March 5.—Jockey J. McTaggart figured prominently in connection with the racing at Palmetto Park this afternoon. By brilliant work he landed three winners. He also had the mounts on 'Rye Straw and Fathom, both of which should have won their respective races in easy fashion. Fathom was an intended "good thing" in the feature race, a handicap at five and a half furlongs. McTaggart got Fathom away forwardly, but contented himself with following Susan B. until straightened for the stretch drive, where he sent his mount along, but Martin on Susan B. clearly outgeneralled McTagart near the end and won by a nose. Sherwood night have won but for being taken wide most of the way, thereby losing much ground. After the finish Fathom came back to the stand bleeding profusely from one of his hind legs as a result of having been jumped on during the running, presumably by Joe Deibold.

jumped on during the running, presumably by Joe Ibeibold.

Dreary weather and track conditions again confronted the racegoers. Hail, which began early this morning, continued steadily all day and converted the track into a bad condition. Mud-runners had things their own way.

The talent started off auspiciously when Dick's Pet and Gallant Boy, both of which were favorites, accounted for the opening purses. The closing dash proved little more than a stiff exercise gallop for Volthorpe, which is at his best at present.

The quintette of racers owned by the Beverwyck stable, including Ringling, were shipped to Norfolk this afternoon to remain until after the close of racing there. Plans for the campaigning of this stable on the Kentucky tracks this spring have been changed and the horses will take part in eastern racing.

Beginning tomorrow, the horses will be set to racing.

Beginning tomorrow, the horses will be called to the post for the opening event at 2:50. The change in time was made for the convenience of those who are sojourning at Summerville.

W. P. Austin, former owner of Kormak and others, was an arrival from New York this morning. He will remain for several days.

Jockey C. Peak, who has been wintering at Hot Springs, is due here Saturday. He probably will ride for A. F. Dayton.

C. S. Wilson took out an insurance pottey on loss for A. F. Dayton.

C. S. Wilson took out an insurance poticy on his Derby colt, Ivan Gardner, today. Kettledrum, which has shown great aptitude as a jumper in his schooling, was also insured by James Boden.
Flying Yankee ran away after his race and unseated jockey Teahan on the far turn. The latter was unable to ride Sherwood and C. Knight was substituted.

The two-year-old Hardshell, the property of H. Vivell, has been gelded.
Discovery and Dr. Jackson, two of the horses recently purchased by Senor Jamie Todd, are in bad condition. They were taken sick with fever a few days ago and are under the care of Dr. McCarthy.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

J. C., Cleveland, O. Certainly. Joe H., Kansas City, Mo. The parlay lost. A limit has no bearing on such cases except in the way of fixing the amount that can be won.

D. J. W., Buffalo, N. Y. As Kick's average did not reach the bookmaker's limit of 15 to 1 there was nothing to do but to pay at his average of 13 to 1. Had his average been greater than the limit, only the limit would have been payable.

Went to post at 2:55. At post 2 minutes. Start good and slow. Won easily; second and third driving. DICK'S PET was away slowly and moved up with a rush after going three-eighths, then suffered from interference in being carried wide on the stretch turn, but drew away in the last eighth and won in a canter. STUCCO raced prominently and finished gamely. DALLY WATERS showed the most early speed, but was taken wide into the stretch, costing her much ground, and tired as if short. BOOTH ran fairly well. JEZAIL showed early speed, but quit. The others were always outpaced.

GALLANT BOY was favored by the going and saved close up to the last turn, where he passed into the lead and held CASTARA safe in the final drive. CASTARA lost ground and dropped far back in the first three-eighths, but came fast in the stretch. OLD JORDAN showed speed and raced into the lead on the last turn, but tired in the stretch.
